Mortuary & Crematory

The Federal Trade Commission Trade Regulation Rule for "Funeral Industry Practices" and the State of California require certain disclosures and prohibits misrepresentations. This form is a check list we ask those we serve to read and sign if during the arrangements for the funeral of _____, who died (passed away) on _____, our firm did, or did not do the following.

I/We, who made the arrangements for the funeral and final disposition of the above named deceased, do hereby attest to the following:

1. A General Price List, effective 01/01/2019, was given/ shown prior to discussing prices, services, or merchandise.
2. A Casket Price List, effective 01/01/2017, was given/ shown prior to discussing prices and selecting of caskets or alternative containers.
3. I/ We were not told embalming is required by law and were advised that, except in certain special cases, that the law does not require embalming.
4. I/ We were not told that any law requires embalming for direct cremations, immediate burial. A funeral using a sealed casket, or if refrigeration is available and the closed casket funeral is held without viewing or visitation.
5. I/ We were not told that any law requires a casket for direct cremation or that a casket other than any unfinished wood box is required for direct cremation or direct disposition.
6. I/ We were told that state law require the purchase of an outer burial container or any of the funeral goods or services I/ We selected except as set forth on the statement of funeral goods and services selected.
7. No claims were made as to the merchandise or other offerings of the firm that embalming or the use of any merchandise available would delay the decomposition of the remains for a long term or indefinite time, or would protect the body from gravesite substances. No representations or warranties were made about the protective features of caskets with a sealing device or outer burial containers other than those made by the manufacturer.
8. The only warranties, expressed or implied, granted in connection with goods sold with the funeral service arranged were the express written warranties, if any, extended by the manufacturers thereof. No other warranties and no warranties of merchandising fitness or a particular purpose were extended.
