

BERNICE ANN REGGIANI

September 7, 1943 - December 2, 2015

Bernice Ann Reggiani (Tiny) passed away peacefully on Dec. 2, 2015. She was 72.

She was born Sept. 7, 1943 in Vallejo, Calif.

Bernice married Ron Bossi in 1963, they had three beautiful children.

As young women, Bernice was a very hard worker on her parent's dairy farm, in San Martin, California. She later applied her farming skills with a family owned and operated mushroom farm in Grass Valley, California. She was also quite proud of her time spent working as a deli manager for Safeway for many years in the Grass Valley and Gilroy area.

Bernice later remarried Salvadore Reggiani in 1989, who also preceded her in death.

Bernice was a loving grandmother; she enjoyed reading her bible and attending church. She belonged to "The Catholic Ladies Relief Society" and was a long time member of "The Legion of Mary," through St. Patrick's Church. Her commitment to God was unconditional.

Bernice will be remembered for her endless love and compassion towards others. She made friends easily wherever she went and will be forever remembered as a loving sister, mother, daughter, grandmother and friend.

She is survived by her three children, Rick Bossi, Randy Bossi and Michelle Ruckman; grandchildren, Dustin, Darin, Danielle and Dalton Ruckman as well as Devon and Dawson Bossi; siblings, Frank Pacheco, Nancy Thompson, Susan Harrison and Antoinette Pacheco.

Bernice was preceded in death by both her parents, Frank and Bernice Pacheco of San Martin, California.

Bernice had a most notable quote many will remember her by. Whenever you would tell her "I love you Bernice", her response would always be... "I love you more."

For those who are available to attend, the Rosary and services for Bernice Reggiani will be held at 12:30 and 1 p.m. Jan. 16, 2016 at St. Patrick's Church in Grass Valley.
