

BRENT ALAN FORSTHOFF

August 28, 1956 - February 1, 2018

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

“ Brent and I hung out together in our junior and senior year in high school. One memory is when he and I tried to blow up the 265 engine in a 56 chevy he had. We could not get that engine to give it up and afterward drove home in the car with smoke billowing out the tail pipe. I miss my dear friend. Rest In Peace Brother.

---

John C. Sebolt - September 15, 2023 at 11:30 PM

“ Man I just wish we could have reconnected before I saw this! I will remember our jam sessions forever dude!

---

Michael Coffey - December 16, 2020 at 11:21 PM

“ I know I wrote previously about Brent but as I was thinking about his passing it came to me a good suggestion for his memorial please honor him with playing the sound of silence on that day it was one of his favorites Todd Hoffman on iTunes has a good version I pray u as his family are healing from all this especially his mother who I met around August last year and his brother and especially his 2 son's and their families.

---

Jackie Grami - February 16, 2018 at 04:05 PM

“ A solid man! So sad to hear us loosing such an awesome soul. May he find paradise in heaven on his boat playing his axe.

---

Phil Campos - February 09, 2018 at 05:20 PM

“ I knew Brent for a long time in Stockton California and had some memorable times together then lost track of him until recent I helped him get his house ready to sell because he needed someone to do that so he could be with his mom in grass valley I wish they were having a service for him because he has a lot of friends that would like to attend I want to tell his mom I feel so sorry and his brother whom I met a few months ago I send my condolences to Jackie grami longley I tried to save him but couldnt

---

Jackie Grami - February 09, 2018 at 12:33 AM

AB

“ Brent was my good friend. He brought music back into my life. So he will always be in my heart. Love you buddy.
Always ur jammin partner. Allen ( Grandote ) Biggs.

---

Allen biggs - February 08, 2018 at 08:28 PM

JE

“ Aww no :-( i am truly sadden to hear about this . I worked with Brent and he was quite a character . My condolences goes out to his family . I'll akways remember his guitar and smile and sense of humor . May he Rest In Peace

---

Joel Elias - February 08, 2018 at 05:48 PM