

Carolyn Delzingaro

June 15, 1944 - December 10, 2020

Aged 76 years. A resident of Penn Valley passed away on 12/10/2020. Born in Hartford, Connecticut on 06/15/1944 to Al Zindt and Evangeline Kirk. Ms. Delzingaro was an avid reader, loved flower arranging and drawing. She is survived by her children; Angela Delzingaro of Grass Valley, Mike Delzingaro of Penn Valley and Joe Delzingaro of Pomona, CA, siblings; Debby Kirk of Eugene, Oregon, Jen Scarpa of Coopersburg, PA and Steve Kirk of Millville, NJ and one granddaughter; Aslee. Arrangements are in the care of Chapel of the Angels Mortuary.

Tribute Wall

TW

“ Just learning about my Aunt Carol. How I wish I followed my heart and reached out to her over the years when I would think about her. I carry with me joyous and amazing memories filled with laughter and smiles. Indeed, she was a strong woman. She has always and will always be part of me as well as the stories of my life I continue to tell up to this day. Thank you, Aunt Carol, for all that you brought into my life. ❤️

Tori Wolan - January 19, 2021 at 08:59 PM

JO

“ I'm fortunate enough to have memories of looking up from my crib and seeing the face of my beautiful guardian angel, Mom. She always believed in me. I will always miss her.

Joe - December 22, 2020 at 03:43 PM

RC

“ I loved spending time with Carol, she always had a story. We spent time walking in the park and at here home. She had a very giving heart and I know she has now gone to an even better place. I am great full for the time we shared laughing. I love you Carol.

Riki Colby - December 22, 2020 at 02:06 PM

KK

“ Carol was such a beautiful human being. She had a spark in her eye and a bounce in her step and loved to laugh. She will be missed but never forgotten. Peace and Love to Carol and her family.

Kathleen Kerrigan - December 22, 2020 at 01:35 PM

AD

“ Mama was the cutest!

Angela Delzingaro - December 21, 2020 at 04:30 PM

Oh my god, I have never seen that picture before! Really captures her spirit!

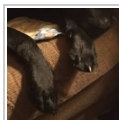

Debby Kirk - December 21, 2020 at 06:09 PM

AD

“ My beautiful mama

Angela Delzingaro - December 19, 2020 at 09:20 AM

Great picture!

Debby Kirk - December 19, 2020 at 11:19 AM

AD

“ Dear Mama, your passing devastated me, but I can take solace in knowing that you are at peace. I wish that your spirit can soar free. I'm so proud to be your daughter. You are the strongest woman I have ever know! I will love you until the end of time! ❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️
❤️

Angela Delzingaro - December 18, 2020 at 07:17 PM

TW

Angie, I am sorry to hear about your mom. She always meant a lot to me. The childhood memories I have with and of her makes me smile—a big smile. I will always remember her smile, her beauty spirit and her craziness. I know life was not always easy for her but she sure made the best of it. She has a good soul.

I hope you are doing ok. I know it's not easy at all. Moms mean so much to us. Please take care of yourself and know you are a big part of my memories as well. Love you. —Tori (Little Vicky)

Tori Wolan - January 19, 2021 at 09:06 PM

TF

“*Carol,
My heart broke today when hearing the news of your passing but it's time for your light to shine in Heaven and watch over us all. You taught me so much about life, people and myself. You supported, accepted and comforted me in so many ways during so many different stages of my life making me a better and stronger woman. There was nothing I couldn't talk to you about or ask you, you were like a Mother to me. One of the smartest, funniest, most down to earth real people I will ever know and brutally honest when I needed it the most. No matter all the miles between us, we remained in touch over the years. I will cherish the memories forever and as you would say to me "Give them hell kid"
Until we meet again, Rest in Peace*

Tara Fueri - December 17, 2020 at 10:23 PM

DK

“ A poem for Carol.

“Late Fragment” by Raymond Carver

*And did you get what you wanted from this life, even so?
I did.*

*And what did you want?
To call myself beloved, to feel myself beloved on the earth.*

My Dear Carol, you loved big and were loved by many. Never shirked a responsibility. Never turned away from something that aroused your curiosity. And you were curious a lot! How I’m going to miss you. Your enjoyment in animals, flowers, museums, making people happy. Your loving sister, Debby.

Debby Kirk - December 17, 2020 at 09:44 PM

ST

“ My dear sister, So many the times you brought happiness to my life. You offered me a wealth of knowledge of our family & lessons in life. I'll not forget. My heart is broken today, but your lasting memories will heal me. Rest peacefully dearest sister.

Stephen - December 17, 2020 at 04:56 PM

PB

Just found out about Carol's passing. What a woman! She welcomed me when I moved to Orlando, always with a smile. Carol's was the party house. She always loved having people over and made everyone feel comfortable. Although I haven't had any communication with Carol for many years, I will always remember her kind smile and all of the good times that she was instrumental in creating. Patti Boyle, Orlando, Florida

Patti Boyle - November 04, 2021 at 05:54 PM