“ This is his uncle again Samuel Vaughn spelled v a u g h a n. I remember when he was probably eight or nine I was 6 years older than him. I did a stupid thing I knew we got a drum set for Christmas and I told him. He promised me he wouldn't tell Charlie his dad but he did. Boy was Charlie upset with me it related at me heaven the number so to speak and I really felt bad that I had told Chuck about his Christmas present. Chuck was a good kid I thought the world of him I would love to know his kids. That's it for now

“ He was my nephew:born in Portsmouth and named after his dad Charles Gaston Vaughan Sr. Although a divorced with hard feeling to Chuck's mom, this side of the Vaughan's was left out of his life. I think of Chuck often. I hope his children will reach out. Chuck loved this family as a young boy.
