

DONNA DWORAK

December 3, 2014

Donna Marie (Balmino) Dworak passed away peacefully at home with her husband Jim and their children, Tolan, Heather and Cyrus.

There will be a small private mass with immediate family. Her wishes in remembrance of her are for us to pass on a small act of kindness, a peaceful moment of thought and honor her with a Rosary prayer.

Those of us who know Donna understand that she believed in kindness and led a simple and private life. She believed in anonymous giving and doing things for others. She loved to bake cakes especially for birthdays, her famous Christmas Sugar cookies, and going with her mom Leona for mint chocolate chip ice cream. Donna also enjoyed gardening and to share the rewards with the neighborhood herd of deer. She trained squirrels and raccoons to eat out of her hand. She named all of her cars and truly missed them when they were replaced. She always looked forward to visiting the lighthouses up and down the Pacific coast. She loved waterskiing on Clearlake with Family and Friends. A six a.m. water ski ride behind the Keaton meant the world to her. She had a great way with words and created birthday scavenger hunts. She also enjoyed amateur radio; her call sign was K6DMD.

She was closest to her children and her beloved husband, Jim “her hero,” and adored her grandchildren Ethan and Emmitt.

Her husband Jim, Sons Tolan and Cyrus, daughter Heather, grandchildren Ethan and Emmit, mother Leona, brother David, sister Deborah, nieces, nephews and family and friends, survive her.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to: Sutter Auburn Faith Foundation/Hospice- "a group of living Angels" 11815 Education St. Auburn, CA 95602.

Arrangements are under the care of Chapel of the Angels Mortuary in Grass Valley.
