

GREGORY PAULINE

October 28, 2014

Greg was called home to be with the Lord on Oct. 28, 2014. He had been courageously battling cancer since diagnosis in August and passed away, surrounded by family, due to complications from pneumonia. He was 56.

A memorial service will be on Saturday, Nov. 15, at Abundant Life Community Church, 10795 Alta St., Grass Valley, Calif. at 3 p.m.

Greg was a passionate man, full of life, love and experiences that he shared with any who were open to receive him. An avid athlete, he was continually at the baseball diamond or on the basketball court pursuing the excitement of the game. At the age of 18, he began learning the art of western silversmithing, and in that, fell into his passion. Six years later he met the love of his life, Debbie, and married her a mere six months later. Through hardships and prosperity, their love for each other only grew. They started a family and moved from Santa Rosa to Grass Valley, where they followed their dreams and passions together. Greg was a much loved man who was part of a closely knit network of family, friends and many brothers and sisters of faith.

He will be dearly missed by his angel wife of 32 years, Debbie Pauline; his princess Amanda Smith, husband James Smith; his son with the million dollar smile Aaron Pauline; two grandsons, Xander and Zach Smith; mother Joy Hughes; husband Harry of Green Valley, Ariz.; brother, Robert (Lisa)

VonFeldon; nephews, Scottie and Sammie of Concord, Calif.; niece Morgan Sullivan of Va.; sister Kristi (Rick) Hocking; niece Leah; nephew Carney of Brentwood, Calif. ; brother Mike Pauline; niece Mikayla; nephew Tristan of Palm Springs, Calif.; brother-in- law David (Wanda) Busselle; nieces, Kayla and Krista; nephew Austin of Big Oak Valley, Calif. as well as many more extended family spanning the states.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Greg Pauline Memorial fund at Bank of the West.
