

HENRY BERNHARD PLOG

June 28, 1954 - February 1, 2018

Henry Plog, passed away at his home in Grass Valley on February 1, 2018. He was 63.

He was born on May 28, 1954 in New Jersey. Henry was a former resident of South Lake Tahoe. Henry's approach to life was both bold and beautiful. He was a prominent music lover and enjoyed gathering with friends to share common musical interests. Henry was an eclectic artist who loved taking found objects and giving them new life as beautiful works of art, many of which he created to display in the lovely garden which he and his wife Margie tended together. Henry was known for his kindness and generosity and was a great ambassador for California.

Henry was a lifelong member of KVMR, a founding member of BONC, and an active supporter of both the Briarpatch Co-op and the Center for the Arts.

Henry is survived by his loving wife Margie and siblings Debbie Bender and Bill Plog. He will be missed by many friends around the country. A memorial will be planned for a future date.

Tribute Wall

“ I worked with Henry 40 yrs ago at FIB at Stateline Nv in the vault. He was a great friend to me and my wife Judy. I was very sorry to find out about his passing. I moved to Hawaii in 89 and we lost track of each other, I wish we could have found each other before his passing. Rest In Peace my friend and we will see each other in the concert in the sky!! Love Dave & Judy in Waikoloa Hi !!!

Hi Dave
This is Duncan from Tahoe. I was thinking about Henry so I googled his name and read he passed some time ago, I'm saddened to hear this, he was a good friend.
The times we all had together are ones I can never duplicate.
So I thought I would right this message to you to say hello and see how you're doing. I hope all is well with you and yours.
I'm doing ok. If you're up for it send me a text at 949-939-5495. Happy holidays!
Duncan
