“ Miss Ivy was a wonderful friend. She was a doer - she would do anything for you that she could, & then some. She would call to see how I/the girls/our family was/doing on a constant & regular basis. This is the way she was - conscientious, reliable. I first got to know Miss Ivy as a servant in the childcare ministry @ FBC of GV, we ministered together. She loved children. We would sit & chat as we put together sample crafts we were going to have the children make the next session. She loved to speak of her family & childhood - a mischievous sprite, spirit, but one who was always willing to learn, experience, discover. She noticed things, had an eye for detail. As time went on she would attend church with my family &, when we went out, for a bite of lunch. She later joined the Glory Choir @ FBC of GV & loved it! She was a woman of many talents, had experiences in life - good & bad, as we all do, different - & will be missed! Sorry, on my end, we lost touch, on my part, Terry
