Jack Collins Fogleman

Jack Collins Fogleman, born September 27, 1955, to Barbara and Jack Fogleman, peacefully passed away on Thursday, December 26th, at 9:50 AM, surrounded by the love of his family and friends.

A beloved figure in the lives of many, Jack was a devoted father, a cherished brother, a proud grandfather, and a loyal friend. He leaves behind a legacy of love and kindness, deeply missed by all who knew him.

Born in San Francisco, Jack called Brisbane & Daly City home for much of his life, later finding joy in Grass Valley. He was a man of strength and unwavering kindness, known for his infectious humor, charming personality, a fabulous harmonica player, and the unwavering love he showered upon his loved ones. Though he could be a bit stubborn at times, his heart was pure gold. He had a contagious smile that could brighten any room. He was always the life of the party, sharing stories and jokes with his friends and family.

Jack's passion for building was evident throughout his life. He was a successful contractor, even traveling to Switzerland to pursue his craft. He later built a beautiful home for his family on Houston Road in Laffeytte, CA. In his free time, Jack enjoyed playing the harmonica, often joining friends and family at the local bars. He was also an avid card player, always up for a friendly game. Family time was incredibly important to him, and he cherished spending time with his children and grandchildren mostly. He also found love in nature, particularly enjoying the beauty of rivers and the majesty of oak and redwood trees.

Jack is survived by his children: Carmen, Joseph, and Robert; his grandchildren: Malory, Eddie, Amelia, Jordan, Jackson; and Sterling and his great-grandchild, Aaleah. He is survived by his siblings: Cindy, Shari, Yvonne, and John and the mother of his children Joann. He is now joined with his Mother Barbara, Father Jack, uncle Vick, Donald, Andy and many dear others he loved.

A celebration of Jack's life will be held on February 22, 2025. The location will be announced soon. Please follow the Facebook event for updates. All are welcome to join us as we remember Jack and celebrate the life he lived. Let's make it a beautiful and joyful occasion – colorful attire is encouraged.

Your love, your light, and your legacy will never be forgotten.

Revelation 21:4 :

"He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death, mourning, crying, or pain, for the old order of things has passed away"

Rest In Peace

Jack
