“ Just now hearing of Uncle Jim's passing. My dad, Joseph Francis, was one of the four Ryan brothers. I am so very sorry for your loss but my memories of Uncle Jim assure me that he is in a much better and softer place. I loved him for his gentleness and his kindnesses to my mother, Thelma (Coutts) Ryan after my dad passed in 1981. Prayers for and sympathy to all the Ryans.

“ We were so sorry to hear of Jim's death. My mother, Florence Ryan Clancy was one of his older sisters, and he stopped by frequently to see her on his way to Vermont. My husband and I actually visited him there late one summer when we took his sister-in-law to Vermont to visit her father. Uncle Jim used to send a note to us every year around Christmas, and when they stopped coming I figured he was in failing health. Our sympathy to the entire family.
