

JOHN BARQUILLA

March 24, 1956 - January 4, 2016

John Barquilla passed away on Jan. 4, 2016 at Sierra Nevada Hospital in the company of loved family members, following a battle with multiple illnesses. He was 59.

A Celebration of Life and potluck will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 23, 2016, at the North San Juan Community Center, in downtown North San Juan. Family and friends who knew and loved John are welcome.

John was born on March 24, 1956, in San Carlos, California. He was the second youngest of six children, with four older sisters and one younger. He graduated from Carlmont High, and moved to Nevada County in the late 1970s along with several members of his family.

Through his years in the area John most enjoyed camping, fishing, and riding his Harley. He worked in carpentry and finally as an underground hard rock miner at the Original Sixteen to One Mine in Alleghany.

John is survived by a son; daughter-in-law; step-daughter; ex-wife; three grandchildren; his mother; five sisters; a brother-in-law; as well as numerous nieces and nephews; and grand-nieces and nephews. John is preceded in death by his father.

“ Good by My brother...I had two trees planted for you in the Tahoe national forest...one for you and one for Jason, so you never have to be alone again. Till me meet again John.
