

JOHN EDWARD COOPER

January 13, 1923 - June 6, 2015

John "Jack" Cooper passed away on June 6, 2015 at the age of 92.

John "Jack" Cooper was born Jan.13, 1923 in Plymouth, Pennsylvania.

After graduating from Lawrence Technical College in Michigan, Jack worked for Heublein, Inc. as a Personnel Director and Purchasing Manager. The company transferred him to the San Francisco Bay Area from Michigan in 1976. After 35 years of employment he retired to Penn Valley with his wife Irene.

Jack served in the U.S. Navy during World War II, entertaining the troops as a musician; he was also a gunner, stationed in Alaska. Jack came from a family of avid fly fishermen. He enjoyed fishing with his friends and relatives in Pennsylvania, Michigan and California. He loved to travel and go on cruises. He loved life and found the good in everybody.

During Jack's blessed 32 year retirement his hobbies included buying and selling antiques and collectibles, watching his favorite sports teams on T.V. and playing the slots. He wrote beautiful poetry and co-authored a book with his wife. He is survived by his loving wife of 66 years Irene; and his four daughters, Debby (Harry), Lisa, Donna (Bruce) and Janine (Alex); and two step-grandchildren, Vimala and Ariel.
