

JOHN LLOYD HARDIN

November 11, 1927 - February 7, 2017

John Hardin passed away peacefully on February 7, 2017 in the comfort of his own home, surrounded by his family.

John lived a full and adventurous life and always had a great story to tell or piece of advice to give. His roots came from Missouri, where he was raised to be a strong, solid Midwestern boy. John enlisted in the U.S. Army and was soon stationed in Japan. Here he found his late wife, Terri Hardin, whom he adored from their first kiss to his last breath. From the beginning, they enjoyed dancing, music, traveling and then settling down and raising a beautiful family together.

Anyone who knew John knew he adored his family by the twinkle in his eyes and smile on his face when he talked about them. John was a hard, devoted worker, a veteran, a family man and a friend to many. He was genuine, honest and was never afraid to speak his mind.

John is survived by his five children, Diana, Nina, John, Greg and Steven; his grandchildren; his great-grandchildren; and countless close friends.

A celebration of life will be held at 1 p.m., on May 13, 2017, at 18500 Gypsy Rover Ct, Penn Valley, CA.

He will be deeply missed but never forgotten.
