“ I remember the day we met. You were so calm compared to my nervous, shy self. You were driving your corvette and summer told me to get in the trunk. She had to be dropped off just around the corner. You couldn't believe I just trusted you and got into the trunk. Looking back I can see how crazy that really was. Lol. We stayed up the whole night talking. You told me you'd seen me before when you picked up a friend down the street from my house. You said I was taking the trash out and when you saw me you told your buddy "I'm going to marry that girl". God knows I wish we'd had more time. I wanted to become you wife more than anything. I could see it in your eyes that you loved me, and I hope you know how much I love you to.

Summer once tried to apologize for introducing us because of everything I've been through since then. I couldn't believe it! I told her " Don't ever apologize to me for that again. Because of her I got to be loved by you. And I wouldn't change even one moment for anything in the world". I love you as much today as the day you were taken from me. I miss you and think of you everyday. Thank you for loving me and sharing your life with me. My heart and my love are yours forever. I'll see you in my dreams.

“ I had wondered why he had quit keeping in touch. Our friendship was very special. My husband and I had only known Kenny for a little over a year, but he was always a pleasure when he came to visit. We would sit and swap stories of our friends and family that were here, & the ones that had gone on.

My Mom past about 3mos. after Kenny, so I was going through a process of my own. I texted Kenny & had let him know of my mom, and wondered why he hadn't responded. I thought he must've been on an adventure or vacation of some sort. I had gotten a wonderful visit once to his cabin, which I thought was a beautiful place. That made me want to add to it & I painted on an old saw with some of Kenny's favorite things. I had told him about it, & that it was almost done. He was excited. I'd like to give it to his daughter sometime. If you receive this & would like it, please contact me:

“ I just found out today from my Nephew Brandon that Kenny was murdered. I was shocked to hear this and my heart felt condolences go out to the Pestana family. Brandon is Kenny's and my sister Mayann`s son. Brandon and Kenny finally connected about a year ago and when I spoke to Kenny in May, he was going to move Brandon in with him. Brandon called him, left messages on his phone etc and got no reply. Now we know why. Brandon's mother Maryann was murdered in Ceres., CA when Brandon was two years old. He was estactic to finally get in touch with Kenny. Valerie Pestana was aware of Kenny as intentions for Brandon. Would someone from the Pestana family please contact us. Brandon is very upset. He looks just like Kenny. Again my condolences to you all. Sincerely, Sherry...bunger_83@yahoo.com
