

KIMBERLY ANNE IVY

January 5, 1953 - December 19, 2014

Kimberly Ann Ivy passed away peacefully after a 10-month battle with lung cancer. She was 61.

Kim lived in Grass Valley for over 43 years. She worked for more than 25 years at Nevada Irrigation District. She loved boating and faithfully went sailing every Friday with her husband. She was an avid gardener and loved to travel.

Kim introduced us all to the poem by Linda Ellis called "The Dash." The poem talks about how while the dates on a tombstone represent the loved one's date of birth and date of passing, it is the dash in between these dates that matters most, for this dash represents the time spent here on Earth.

Although far too short, Kim's life was abundant with people who loved her. She was the family planner and organizer, capturing every moment of her life's journey and travels through her photographs and trinkets. Her "dash" was bold and full.

Hospice of the Foothills cared for Kim during her final days. The compassionate care provided by Hospice staff brought the calm to follow the storm that cancer causes in its final stages.

In Kim's memory, donations can be made to Hospice of the Foothills.

Kim is survived by her husband Rod Ivy; mother Jacqueline Odom; brothers, Keith and Kevin Odom; sisters, Terria Odom-Wolfer, Tamara Odom-Maryon, Kristen Odom and Traci Odom-Walsh; children, Chad Bryer, Sage Zimmerman, Sequoia Fussell and Tom Ivy; grandchildren, Austin and Megan Bryer, Seren and Rosa Bowen; In-laws, Bruce and Louise Ivy, Connie Anderson and Andy and Kay Anderson.

Kim's father Wayne Odom, sister Kathleen Odom, and father-in-law Conway Ivy preceded her in death.

There will be a celebration of her life in the spring when the Shasta Daisies that cover her front yard are in full bloom, a great sight to remind us all of this magnificent woman who is our angel now and will be deeply missed.
