“Peggy was one of the most joyous, hilarious, real, witty, loving people that I have encountered. I used to walk the hill at work in the morning just to hear her hilarious stories of her weekend, her children, and her wonderful adventures in life. When I told her that I was moving on to a new job, she wished me well, and gave me a cowbell to remember her by. Peggy will be missed abundantly.

“I love Peg, shocked, and so very sad to hear of her passing. My heartfelt condolences go out to her kids who I know she loved with all her heart, Her favorite topic. I always enjoyed seeing Peg, she did make a room light up when she entered. My best to Peg's children and family.

“Peg, how to explain such a unique and caring person? She was a bright light with an intense loyalty to her children and those whom she cared about. She was always working to inspire others, tell them how important and special they were. She was a truth teller and I greatly respected that about her. I will miss her terribly and have lost a friend who knew the meaning of what was right and how people should treat each other. I hope she is in a peaceful place full of laughter and jokes - her laugh.. Infectious. Much love Peg!
