

MILDRED DUPERRON

September 14, 2014

Mildred DuPerron passed away Sept. 14, 2014, with family by her side, after a five-year battle with dementia. She was 82.

She passed exactly five years after her husband; Mildred went to be with Fred and is now in loving hands with the Lord.

No services will be held at this time.

Mildred was born in 1932 in Michigan to Alice and Elbert Purkiss. When she was 14, she met Fred DuPerron and two years later they married. They had two biological children but felt their family was not complete so they adopted four children.

Both Fred and Mildred were exceptionally loving and kindhearted souls.

She leaves behind six children, 10 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Mildred was preceded in death by her grandson Peter in 2007 and her husband Fred in 2009.

The family would like to thank Cascade Senior Living, Brunswick Village and Hospice of the Foothills for helping their beloved mother and grandmother through her last stages of life. May she rest in peace.

“ Millie was a wonderful woman. She was my neighbor and friend for 20+ years. Her and Fred loved each other so much. So it is fitting that she is with Fred now. They both were always doing something whether it was working on wood crafts or gardening. They were great at both. Millie always talked about all of her children with love. It takes a very special person to adopt children who need love care and support. I will miss her and always have a loving spot in my heart for her.
