

NELLIE ANESTASIA DEMETRIF

April 13, 1917 - June 11, 2017

Nellie Anastasia Demetriff passed away on June 11, 2017.

She was born in Kerman, CA on April 13, 1917, to parents Mary Mekeva and John Demetriff.

She was a lifelong resident of California. In her late 20s, she enlisted in the U.S. Coast Guard near the end of WWII. She retired at age 65 after working as an Office Manager for Hercules Chemical Corp for over 30 years. She was the 5th of 12 children and the oldest girl. She spent this past year living with her sister again as they did when they were young ladies. Her love for her cats and gardening kept her happy and healthy for most of her years.

Nellie's final resting place will be with her family at Woodville Cemetery, near Porterville, CA.

She is survived by sisters Tanya Maisler, of Grass Valley, Vera McDonald, of San Francisco, brother Jim Demetriff, of Porterville, as well as many nieces and nephews.

Arrangements are under the care of Chapel of the Angels Mortuary.
