

RAYMOND RENATO BUTI

July 6, 1925 - January 6, 2015

Raymond Renato Buti died peacefully on Jan. 6, 2015. He was 89.

A Memorial Mass will be held at at 11 a.m. Saturday, Jan. 17, 2015, at St. Patricks Catholic Church, 235 Chapel St., Grass Valley, with a celebration of life at Alta Sierra Country Club, 11897 Tammy Dr., Grass Valley, immediately following.

He was born in Oakland, Calif., on July 6, 1925, to immigrant Italian parents, Ugo and Adele (Novelli) Buti. He was raised in Oakland, Calif., and attended Oakland Technical High school during which he met the love of his life, Norma (Magnani).

They were married on Aug. 6, 1944. He adored her for every minute of their 70 years together. His last words on this earth were to her, "I love you."

He began his career at Hagstrom Markets in Oakland, Calif., he then managed the La Salle Market Montclair, Calif., in the Oakland foothills. He then changed his occupation to become a bread driver for Oroweat Baking Company from its inception until he retired 27 years later.

His enjoyments in life were woodworking and his pristine well-manicured garden.

He and his loving wife, Norma, lived in Oakland, Calif., San Leandro, Calif., Healdsburg, Calif., and the last 2 years in Grass Valley, Calif.

He leaves behind a proud, strong family including wife Norma; daughter Judy Buti Wootton; son-in-law Michael Wootton; son Wayne; daughter-in-law Tish; grandchildren, Jennifer (Lance) Montierth, and Christopher (Beth) Buti; great-grandchildren, Emily and Evelyn Montierth, and Kate and Trevor Buti.

He is preceded in death by his parents.

He will be truly missed by his family.

In lieu of flowers, the Buti family requests donations be made in his name to Hospice of the Foothills, 11270 Rough and Ready Highway, Grass Valley, Calif.. 95945.

Arrangements are under the care of Chapel of the Angels Mortuary in Grass Valley.
