

RAYMOND EARL KRAUSCH

October 18, 1919 - December 5, 2014

Raymond Earl Krausch passed peacefully away in his sleep on Dec. 5, 2014. He was 95.

A private family service will be held at a later date.

Ray was born in Berkeley, Calif., on Oct. 18, 1919, to Ramona Storm and Charles Krausch.

He attended Berkeley High School. He then went into sheet metal work, from which he would eventually retire.

Ray was married to Rene Verbeck for 64 years. They had two sons, Roy and Raymond. They spent every opportunity to vacation then eventually moved to Washington, Calif.

Raymond was on the water board for the Fire Department. He maintained and cared for the firehouse, cemetery and helped to put the water system in.

He loved planting his garden every year, making whirligigs signs and toys. He just loved woodworking.

He was an avid hunter and fisherman. Raymond also reported the daily weather temperatures and rain totals to The Union and NOAA.

Ray is survived by his sons, Roy (Gail) and Chuck (Dina); grandsons, Jason (Stephanie) and Joe; granddaughters, Chanell (Steve) and Jessica (Matt); great-grandchildren, Hailie, Madylyn, Brayden, Tyler, Logan, Alyssa and Dysten.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Rene; parents; brothers, George and Charles.

Arrangements are under the care of Chapel of the Angels Mortuary in Grass Valley.
