“ Bob was a sweet guy with a joyful disposition. Visits with him usually included a good amount of laughter as we swapped updates of what had happened in our lives since our last meeting. He seemed to be really happy with the life had set up for himself and did what he could to keep it uncomplicated. He had the love of and love for Andrea, his family and his beloved dogs. He wanted little else. It was my good fortune to know him as a brother-in-law.

“ A great fishing buddy. He got me my first car and first job. He was my closest in age to me in my family. I'd fight with him as a young boy, Looked up to him as a teen and loved his company as an adult. After I moved away and we'd talk on the phone he'd always end our conversation with "I love you brother." RIP Bob, I'll always love you brother.

Bob and I shared a love of all things with four legs, the topic of our pets would always make it's way into our conversation, and what our parents called "hippie" food. He loved the Nevada City area and would take his dogs on many walks along trails.

He loved his life up there his long time girlfriend Andrea, his family and dogs. Love ya Bob miss you so much!! RIP my sweet brother.
