

Shondra Zimmermann

December 30, 1980 - February 20, 2025

It is with deep sadness that we announce the passing of our beautiful daughter, Shondra Zimmermann, age 44. Shondra's zest for life and nature brought her to the mountains of California and closer to family. She enjoyed her new job in Grass Valley and the many people she met in the town as she completed her transition from Oregon. She made new friends easily and had a special calling for the people that needed help in life, and hoped she could make a difference in their world.

Shondra enjoyed nature and would often go camping with her dog Kiva, just to enjoy the serenity and be closer to God. The close proximity to the mountains fed her love for snowboarding and the many outdoor sports that the area provided.

Shondra leaves behind her father, Paul Magrath, her mother and step-father, Sandra and Joe Cao, and her sisters, Angela Cao, Michele Shulaw and Lauren Cao, as well as her cousins and other members of her family and many friends. It is with deep sorrow that we say goodbye to her in this short life and with the hopes of seeing each other again in the next.

A remembrance service will be held at 11:00 am on March 8, at the Chapel of the Angels Mortuary in Grass Valley.
