“ I am still in denial that Susan has left this world so suddenly and unexpectedly. I have had the distinct privilege to get to know her well over the past few years as we developed our Rally Devious classes and training concepts. We started writing a Rally training book, and I will now have to finish it without Susan's wit and insights. Susan helped me a lot getting the Dog Training Building up to snuff. A huge portion of the good energy contained within those walls is from Susan. I will miss her and her delightful Pug family immensely.
