Susan Totten Currie Gardyan was a complicated woman. She was a native of Rhode Island, who served during WW II at Treasure Island, CA, on San Francisco bay as a US Navy Wave. A woman of many talents and abilities, she was active with her husband Ed Gardyan of Long Island, NY in all things aeronautical. She moved her family many times over the years, always in pursuit of job opportunities to support her children. Susan was a source of knowledge for many things. I shall miss her greatly.
