

Teresa de las Mercedes Garcilaso de la Vega

December 27, 1969 - September 20, 2019

Teresa de las Mercedes Garcilaso de la Vega left us too soon on September 20, 2019.

Teresa was born on December 27, 1969 in Miami, Florida to Felipe Alfredo Garcilaso de la Vega and Nidia Callejas of Cuba.

Teresa loved live music, animals, laughing, and helping others. She never arrived empty-handed. In her work and in her life she was a caregiver.

The three greatest gifts she has left us are her daughter Sky Rae de las Mercedes, her son Bodhi Gregory, and her passion for life.

Teresa is predeceased by Abuela Emma Rosabal Quintana, Abuela Mercedes Montero, her father, her mother, and her big brother Jesus Garcilaso de la Vega. She is survived by her big sister Barbara Garcilaso de la Vega, and her children Sky and Bodhi.

To honor Teresa, clean your house and say her name correctly –sounds like Traysa.

“ The clean your house and say her name correctly part is so true. I have missed her for years since we last spoke. The news was still heartbreaking. Teresa was a special friend you could never forget. Unique. Passionate. Down for anything. Fun. Genuine. Would give you the shirt off her back and did for me at least once..probably not her birkenstocks though.

She taught me so much in a hard time I was going through. she took me and even my 2 dogs in. she never judged me but if she did it was for a good reason. I remember her garden with strawberries, her caring for her dogs, making fires, stacking so much wood, always mopping, picking blackberries, making recipes, listening to citizens cope together and Michael franti really loud oh and Bruno mars. I remember her alter. Her owl picture she let me have. and her flannel I wear so often. her love for her family and Bodhi was out of this world.

She taught me to light candles for others. To plant my fortunes and lucky pennies in dirt so they grow. she was such a badass I know I'm forgetting so many memories and special things about her. I miss and love you Teresa.

I remember picking my son, Xavier, up from pre-school, and here comes this driven woman with a mission. I was worried at first. Then she said her son would like to have a play date with mine. Her kindness and friendship became one I will always cherish. There is no one like her. A true one of a kind gal. And you never ever forgot my birthday in 10 years because it is the same as Bodhi's.

I'm sorry for messing this up with the accidental copying of Hollie's message.

Terri was a beautiful, kind, and generous soul. Warm, fun and incredibly hospitable. She opened her home and her heart to us - three complete strangers. We will always have a place for her in our heart. RIP. Nicola, Martin & Sunee xoxo
