

Veda Irene Adams

January 25, 1926 - May 6, 2015

Veda Irene Adams

Most of us called her Ma, some called her Vee Dee, Veda Irene Adams passed away peacefully on May 6, 2015.

Veda was born to William and Callie Wilson on Jan. 25, 1926 in Parker, Oklahoma. She was the youngest of 8 children.

On March 28, 1946 she married Howard Adams and their adventures began. They lived and worked in many different places all over the west. Veda made numerous homes for her family out of almost nothing and became the camp cook at many different mines.

She and Howard had two sons and eventually settled down in Grass Valley. She was always one to welcome people into their home and care for them with a warm meal and a clean bed. She was an avid crocheter and enjoyed gardening. She was devoted to her grandchildren and was always there to play cards or dice, to drive them to a sporting event or just pick them up from school.

Veda is survived by Allen & Patty Adams, son & daughter-in-law of Tucson, AZ, Trish Adams, daughter-in-law, Grass Valley, CA, Dawn & Joe Fischer, granddaughter & husband of Tucson, AZ, Clint & Jennifer Adams, grandson & wife of Grass Valley, CA, Heather Adams, granddaughter Las Vegas, NV, Elizabeth & Greg Smeltzer, granddaughter & husband of Carson City, NV, Lance & Lyndie Adams, grandson & wife of Grass Valley, CA. Great grandchildren, Hannah, Justin, Addisyn, Kyle, Aiden, Maxine and Autumn.

She was preceded in death by Howard and Terry Adams.
